

PELLET ENVY
Competition Cooking Class
April 9th & 10th , 2010 at the
Eastland Middle School
601 Chestnut Street
Shannon, Illinois

Two days of instruction
Two completely different pits

ONE AWESOME EXPERIENCE

Rod and Sheri Gray of Pellet Envy have created a one of a kind competition cooking instructional event. The 2009 KCBS Team of the Year Champions, the top ranked brisket cooks in the country and the most winning team in competition barbecue the last two years, they will share every detail of their competitive cooking style, including the complete recipes used in competition.

- Concentration on the four main KCBS categories – Chicken, Ribs, Pork & Brisket
- Complete contest simulated using both a pellet cooker and traditional offset
- Every detail of our award winning cooking program discussed in depth
- Meat quality, selection, and detailed information on brisket aging will be addressed
- Revealing techniques to allow the cook to achieve consistent, repeatable results
- Providing proven presentations to achieve the best possible scores
- Taste all four competition categories prepped and cooked in this class

This historical event will be held at the Eastland Middle School in Shannon, Illinois. Shannon is the home of the Illinois State Championship and world famous Butt to Butt Invitational!

This is a classroom style event, which allows you to completely focus on the techniques presented. The class will begin promptly at 6:00 pm on Friday. After an evening of intense instruction, we will recess at approximately 9:00 pm. The class will begin again at 7:00 am sharp on Saturday and will conclude about 2:00 pm or when the absolute last question is answered. The team will cook throughout the night, the details of which will be discussed in the Saturday morning session. Attendees are welcome to stay onsite overnight but are encouraged to get a good nights rest for the Saturday session. Host hotel information is available for this event upon request.

Cost for this class is $500 per person and $250 for spouses. Seating is limited to allow for complete class participation and is on a first come, first serve basis. Friday dinner and Saturday breakfast will be provided. Complete and return the application with payment to reserve your seat now.
